

Anything is Possible...

...when you unleash the power of the human spirit for the good of the community. Through its Great Grants effort, donors to the Oklahoma City Community Foundation are helping make the community a better place to live.

For example, patrons may attend the exciting grand opening of the Oklahoma City Museum of Art in the Donald W. Reynolds Visual Arts Center free of charge March 16 and 17 – thanks to a Great Grant from the Oklahoma City Community Foundation. The center will feature 15 galleries as well as Dale Chihuly: An Inaugural Exhibition. The Chihuly show was created exclusively for the opening of the Oklahoma City Museum of Art. Join us for the museum's inaugural weekend at this world-class facility. The museum is located at 415 Couch Drive downtown Oklahoma City. Hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Great Grants are helping donors help their communities. If you're interested in helping make a lasting difference, contact Penny Voss at 405/235-5603, or reach her by e-mail at p.voss@occf.org.

The delicately curved blown glass sculpture known as The Eleanor Blake Kirkpatrick Tower will be the signature piece for the atrium of the Reynolds Visual Arts Center. The tower, by world-renowned artist Dale Chihuly, rises to a height of more than 50 feet. The public can see it free during opening weekend March 16 and 17 thanks to the donors of the Oklahoma City Community Foundation.

Funding Dreams for a Better Future. . .

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation is a non-profit public charity that works with donors and non-profit organizations to attract and manage endowment funds for the community's benefit.

As part of its mission, the Community Foundation promotes community programs that address specific opportunities and issues and provides support for organizations that can effectively deal with community needs.

A basic goal of each community program is to develop effective solutions to improve the community, not simply to distribute funds. The staff of the Community Foundation takes a proactive approach to assisting organizations in developing programs that meet the needs of the community today and in identifying emerging issues.

What are your dreams for a better community? Let us help them come true. For additional information, contact us at 405/235-5603, or visit our Web site at www.occf.org.
