

Comments from Counselors Attending 2009 Summer Institute

"I found this institute to be extremely valuable as I have only been in the profession for one year. I will definitely have a better understanding of what I can do for my students in the future."

"Overall this workshop was great. We appreciate all you do!"

"All faculty very knowledgeable and helpful."

"Light hearted, fun people helped the information be relevant and applicable. The insight and experience was wonderful."

"This was a very impressive workshop and it was due to the faculty and presenters."

OKLAHOMA CITY
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
Helping you help the community

Founded in 1969, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation is ranked among the top 25 community foundations in the United States. As the state's largest independent administrator of scholarship and award funds, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation manages more than 140 scholarship funds.

For more information about the Oklahoma City Community Foundation:

- Visit www.occf.org
- Call 405/235-5603
- Connect with us through social media

www.facebook.com/occf.org www.facebook.com/OCCFScholarships

@occforg

www.youtube.com/occforg

OKLAHOMA CITY
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
Helping you help the community

Central Oklahoma Guidance Counselor Network: 2012 Summer Institute

June 13-14

On the campus of Oklahoma City University

Central Oklahoma Guidance Counselor Network: 2012 Summer Institute

The Central Oklahoma Guidance Counselor Network: 2012 Summer Institute is a program of the Oklahoma City Community Foundation in partnership with the faculty of educational institutions in Oklahoma and Texas.

The purpose of the institute is to train high school guidance counselors in a curriculum that focuses on the college admissions process. Participants should leave with an understanding of the importance of their role in the lives of prospective college students and will receive tools to help them in the counselor role.

Schedule

Wednesday, June 13, 2012

Thursday, June 14, 2012

Cost

The Central Oklahoma Guidance Counselor Network 2012 Summer Institute is a program of the Oklahoma City Community Foundation. Participants will not be charged a registration fee, but are responsible for their own transportation and lodging. Lunch is provided.

Application

Enrollment is limited to 60 high school guidance counselors. If you are interested in attending, please submit an application form. Approved attendees will receive an admission letter from the Oklahoma City Community Foundation.

For more information or to request an application form, please contact:

Linda Keefe

405/606-2909

l.keefe@occf.org

Continuing Education Credit Available

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation will issue certificates for clock hours of training which may be honored as continuing education credits by your school district.

Faculty

Faculty presenters are active members of the College Board and/or the Texas, Great Plains and National Associations for College Admissions Counseling.

As of August 24, 2011, the following faculty presenters have been confirmed:

Stephanie Anderson – As assistant vice president for Enrollment Management and Director of Undergraduate Admissions, Anderson oversees all aspects of recruitment and admission activities for Texas State University's undergraduate programs.

Brad Burnham – Retired college and career counselor, Burnham administered a unique program of services for students at Union High School in Tulsa, Okla.

Nan Davis – As vice president at Austin College in Sherman, Texas, Davis is responsible for all aspects of admission and financial aid services.

Earl Johnson – As associate vice president for enrollment and student services at the University of Tulsa, Johnson has served at every level in the admissions office and currently serves as dean of admissions.

Matt Hamilton – As associate vice president at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, Okla., Hamilton directs enrollment and student financial services.

Donald Kamentz – As director of college initiatives at YES Prep Public Schools in Houston, Texas, Kamentz is responsible for planning, implementing and evaluating a comprehensive college matriculation program.

Barbara Ramos Merkle – As director of admissions at Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls, Texas, Merkle is responsible for university recruitment programs for prospective undergraduate and graduate students.

Ron W. Moss – Co-director of college placement at Prestonwood Christian Academy in Plano, Texas.

Mike Scott – As dean of financial aid at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas, Scott is active in the financial aid industry serving on advisory boards for a variety of education funding organizations.