In accepting a contribution to any fund, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation trustees commit to the donor that the contribution will be protected for the charitable purpose originally intended. The variance power, as described in the governing documents of the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, assures donors that if the charitable purpose of their contributions becomes impractical or impossible, the distributions will be directed to similar purposes in the community.

Helping You Help the Community

Founded in 1969, the Oklahoma City Community Foundation is a 501(c)(3) public charity that works with people who want to make a difference through their charitable gifts. We offer a variety of current and planned giving opportunities that can help individuals and families reach their charitable and financial goals and our administrative services allows donors to enjoy their charitable giving.

Let us help you help the community. Please indicate below what additional information we can provide you:

- Information about the three advised fund options.
- Combining estate planning with charitable giving.
- Charitable gifts that also provide income to donor or others.
- Establishing a scholarship endowment.
- Transferring the assets of a family or charitable foundation.
