

David and Kelly Feroli
Photo by Brandon Snider

An advised fund at the Oklahoma City Community Foundation allows us to fulfill and build upon the philanthropic goals we already established.

David and Kelly Feroli share a passion for helping their community. In honor of David's retirement, the couple established an advised fund at the Oklahoma City Community Foundation to support their favorite charities. The fund not only helps simplify their giving, but also eases a tax burden as they work to make Oklahoma City a better place.

